Today at church: Loud Trumpets, Big Warnings (Rev. 8–9)

God always warns first, because he wants everyone, everyone, to turn back to him and be close to him. That's how much he loves people — he doesn't want anyone to miss out on him.

Ask at home: "Why did God want to warn people?" (Because he loves them and wants them close!)

A prayer for bedtime: "God, thank you for warning us because you love us. Help me stay close to you. Amen."
