Today at church: A Sweet and Sour Scroll (Rev. 10)

That's a wonderful little picture of what it's like to follow Jesus. Following Jesus is the best thing ever — so sweet, so good! And sometimes, following Jesus is a little hard too, like when we have to be patient, or kind when we don't feel like it, or brave. Both things are true at the very same time, and that's okay. Jesus is still with us through the sweet parts and the harder parts.

Ask at home: "Can something be sweet and a little hard at the same time?" (Yes!)

A prayer for bedtime: "Jesus, thank you that following you is the best thing ever, even on the days it's a little hard. Amen."
