Today at church: Brave Helpers (Rev. 11)

And guess what happens to brave helpers who stay close to Jesus? They win. Being brave for Jesus — even when it feels a little scary, like the first day at a new class, or telling the truth when it's hard — always, always wins in the end, because Jesus is with us.

Ask at home: "What happens when we're brave for Jesus?" (We win, because Jesus is with us!)

A prayer for bedtime: "Jesus, help me be brave. Thank you for being with me when I feel scared. Amen."
