

Who Is Really in Charge?

You need

scissors, coloured pencils, glue

The idea

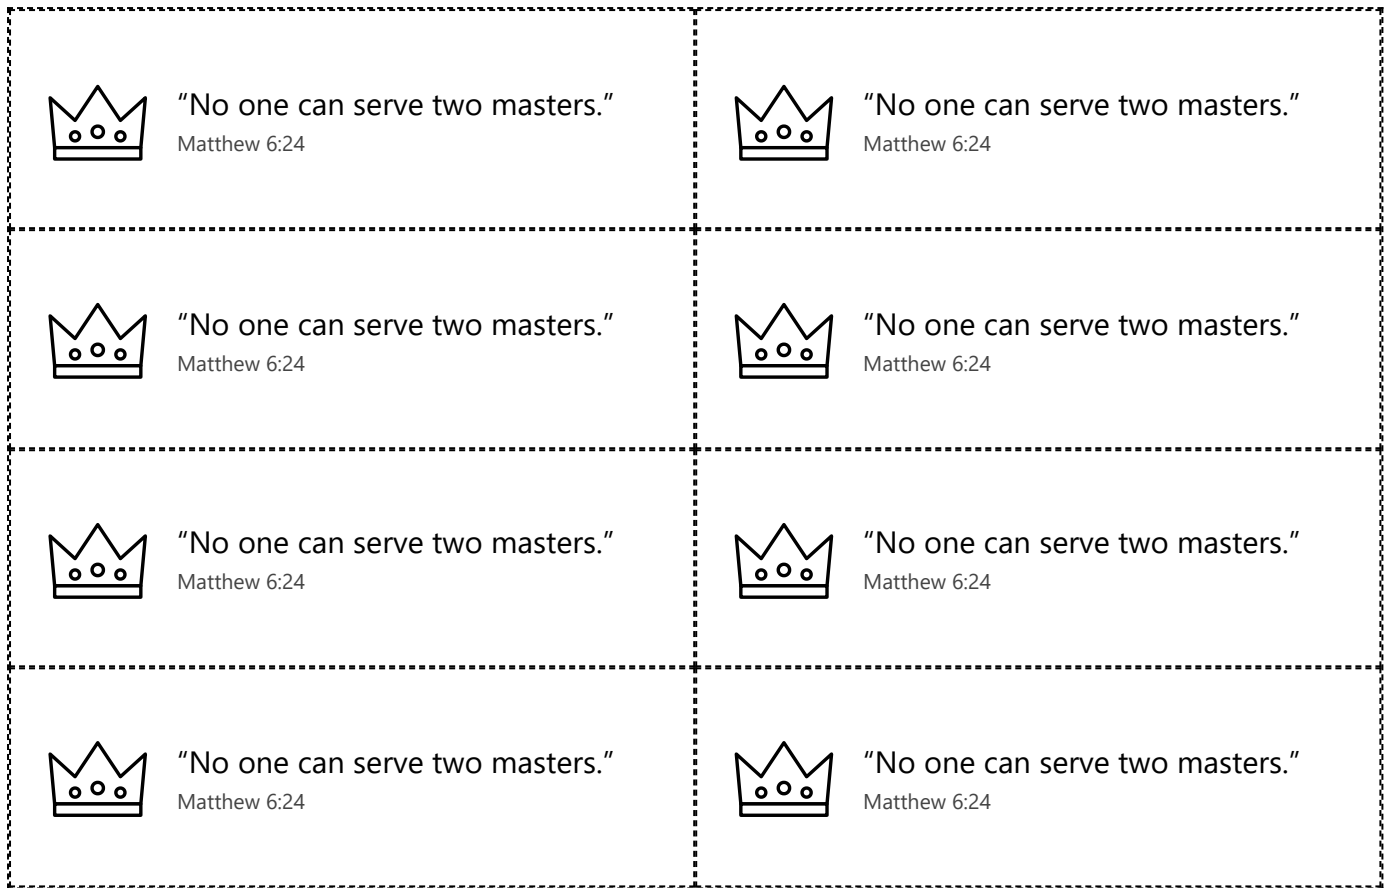

Each child draws a crown. On one side, they write or draw the thing that sometimes acts like an emperor in their week — phone, friends, being funny, winning. On the other side, "Jesus." Ask which crown they want to be the bigger one.

fold here

✂ cut along the dashed lines

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: Who Is Really in Charge? (Background)

Ask at home:

1. When is it hardest to say no while everyone else is saying yes?
2. What would you do if someone laughed at you for believing in Jesus?
3. What is sometimes more important to you than Jesus, even when you'd rather it wasn't?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you that you are the real King, stronger than anything that frightens us and anything we try to impress. Help us to belong to you honestly, even when it costs something. Show us when we have quietly started trusting something else. Amen.