

The Seven Letters

You need

coloured pencils

The idea

A class report card — "What we are good at" on one side, "What we could grow in" on the other. Fill it in together, gently. Keep it to look at in a few months.

Our group: _____

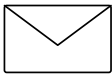

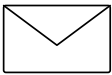

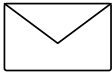

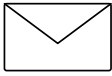

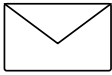

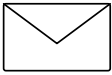

What we are good at

[illegible]

What we could grow in

[illegible]

Look at it again on: _____._____.

 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10	 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10
 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10	 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10
 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10	 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10
 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10	 "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Revelation 2:10

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: The Seven Letters (Revelation 2–3)

Ask at home:

1. Why do you think the two churches with the hardest lives got no criticism at all?
2. Can somebody do everything right and still be missing something? What?
3. Which of the seven sounds most like us?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you that you tell us the truth instead of just being polite. Thank you that you never give up on us. Help us to be faithful even when we are small, and kind even when we are right. Amen.