

The Trumpets

You need

scissors, coloured pencils

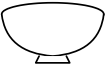

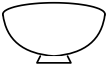

The idea

A bowl of incense, or a paper bowl the children write prayers into. Collect them and pray them together. It makes chapter 8:4 concrete.

My prayer:	My prayer:
My prayer:	My prayer:
My prayer:	My prayer:
My prayer:	My prayer:

✂ cut along the dashed lines

 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4	 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4
 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4	 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4
 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4	 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4
 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4	 "The prayers of God's people went up before God." from Revelation 8:4

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: The Trumpets (Revelation 8–9)

Ask at home:

1. Why do you think God takes away the things people rely on, instead of just fixing them?
2. What do you lean on when you're worried?
3. Why is it so hard to change your mind once you have dug in?

Prayer: God, thank you that our prayers actually reach you and actually do something. Show us the things we lean on instead of you. And please give us soft hearts, so that when you show us something, we change. Amen.