

The Two Witnesses

You need

scissors, coloured pencils, glue

The idea

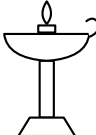

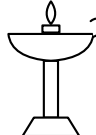

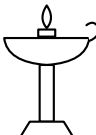

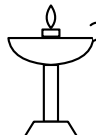

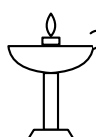

Two paper figures standing back to back, holding a lamp between them. On the back, each child writes one person who might see them keep hoping this week.

fold here

Who might see me keep hoping this week?

✂ cut along the dashed lines

 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15	 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15
 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15	 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15
 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15	 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15
 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15	 "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord." Revelation 11:15

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: The Two Witnesses (Revelation 11)

Ask at home:

1. Why were people relieved when the witnesses died?
2. Why do you think the weakness convinced people when the miracles didn't?
3. Who is watching how you handle things going wrong?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you that you were strongest when you looked weakest. Help us to keep hoping where people can see it, even when it is embarrassing. And thank you that the kingdom is already yours. Amen.