

Jesus' Victory

You need

scissors, coloured pencils, glue

The idea

A dragon that is large and impressive on one side, and on the other side the words "still lost." Children enjoy this more than you expect.

fold here

still lost

✂ cut along the dashed lines

 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11	 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11
 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11	 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11
 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11	 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11
 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11	 "They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony." Revelation 12:11

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: Jesus' Victory (Revelation 12)

Ask at home:

1. Why do you think the dragon is described as so huge if he keeps losing?
2. What does it mean to "conquer by telling the truth"?
3. Is there something that looks scary to you that might be smaller than it looks?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you that the dragon has never once beaten you. Thank you that we win the same way you did — by what you have already done, and by telling the truth. Help us not to be frightened of things that look big. Amen.