

The Bowls

You need

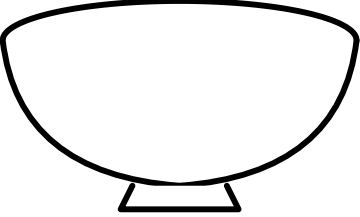

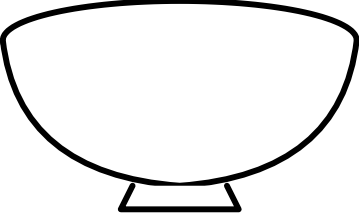

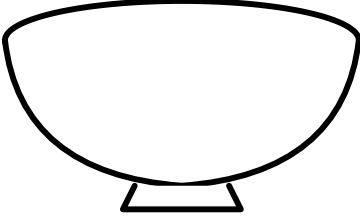

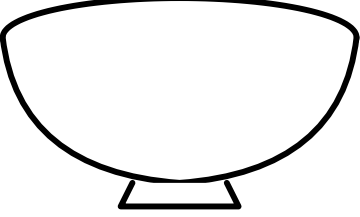

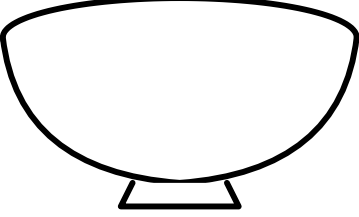

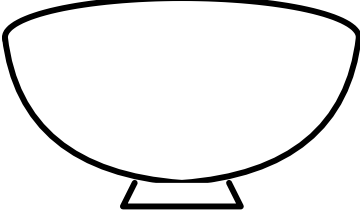

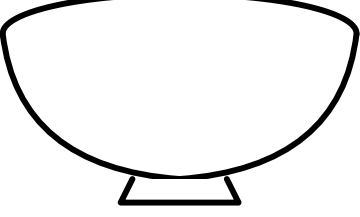

scissors, coloured pencils

The idea

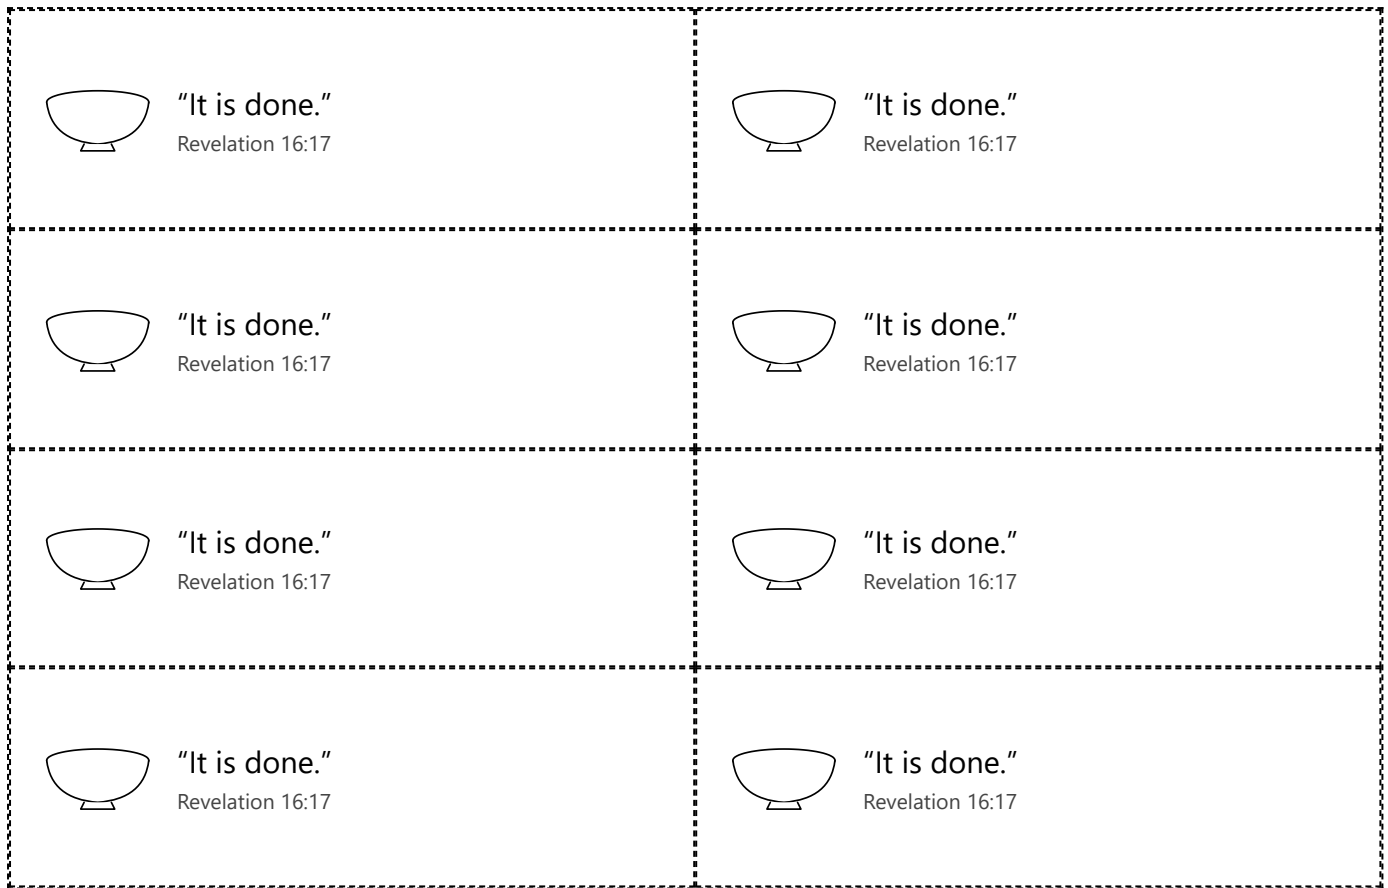

Seven small paper bowls with the targets from section 3 written inside them. Seeing that the list is specific removes a lot of the fear.

What the bowls are aimed at (section 3):

- the mark of the beast — everyone who obeys Satan out of fear, and starts behaving like him
- the fact that God's witnesses have suffered for living like Jesus — that is you, and God has not forgotten it
- stubbornness, twice — refusing to admit being wrong, refusing to change
- and finally, gathering with Satan at Armageddon

1 	2 	3
4 	5 	6
7 	"It is done." Revelation 16:17

✂ cut along the dashed lines

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: The Bowls (Revelation 15–16)

Ask at home:

1. What is the difference between losing your temper and refusing to give up?
2. Why is it so hard to admit when we are wrong?
3. How could someone be sure they are on the right side and still be wrong?

Prayer: God, thank you that your anger is you refusing to give up on putting things right. Thank you that you have noticed when we suffer for following you. Please keep our hearts soft, so that when you show us something, we listen. Amen.