

The Thousand Years

You need

scissors, coloured pencils, glue

The idea

A chain of paper links the children write victories on — small ones from their own week.
Chain it around the room.

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

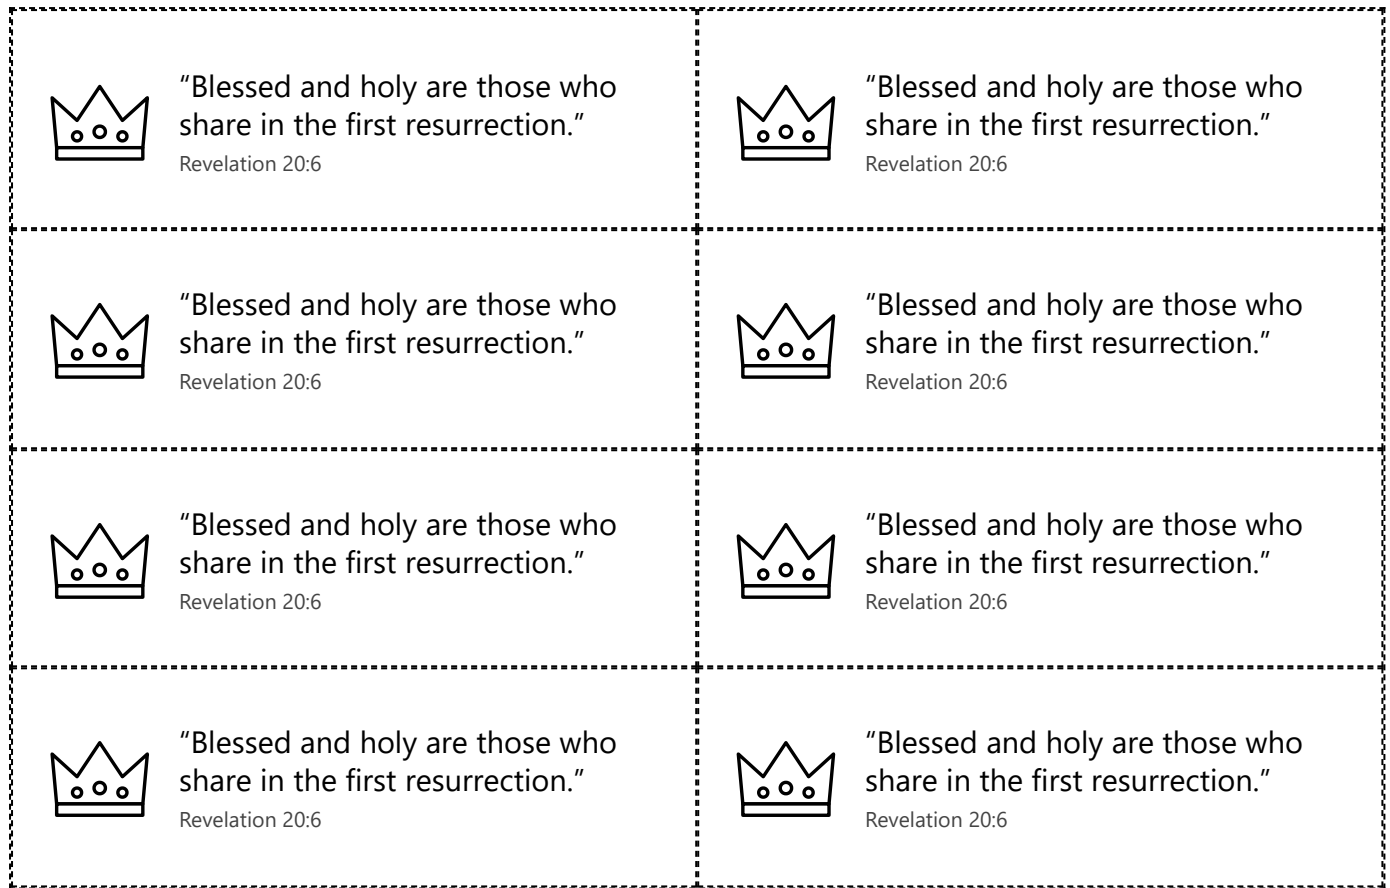

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

A victory this week: _____

✂ cut along the dashed lines

✂ cut along the dashed lines

Today at church: The Thousand Years (Revelation 20)

Ask at home:

1. Why do you think the people who were killed are described as reigning?
2. What does it tell us that Satan's last attack takes one verse?
3. What is the Judge like?

Prayer: Jesus, thank you that Satan is chained and that his ending is already written. Thank you that even when we are weak we are treated like kings. And thank you that the one who judges is the one who loves us most. Amen.